Subd to Secty

In regards (2) above, a draft is subd for appl. Mr Cook and Mr H. Shamsagar were granted a similar concession.

The original file of papers bearing the new Rule is not forthcoming, but a printed copy of the Order is put up.

As regards (1) above it is submitted that there is no official correspondence on the subject. It would be well if Mr. Rice made an official reference. Particulars as regards the photographer who is to be retired, his pay, age, service year are required.

The File relating to Retiring Pension of the Officers of the My son (Civil Service) has been found & is herewith subd.
Since the issue of the new rule the concession was extended to Mr. Shamsagar ^{and} Mr. Cook papers relating to these are put up.

In neither of these cases did the extension of the concession go before the Council.

A draft extending the concession to Mr. Rice is subd. for approval.

A draft regarding the ~~the~~ Photographic work of the Archaeological Dept is also submitted for approval.

I have ascertained that J. Chinappa, the Photographer attached to the Arch. Dept is more than 55 years old and that his pay is Rs. 150 per mensem.
